

Autotune

Jason Chen

This song came out yesterday, after being teased for about 3 months. Jason Chen is amazing! Both at songwriting and singing. Enjoy!

Capo 2

D
I was young, lost, stupid,
A Bm G
Didn't know what I was doing wrong
D
Just eat, sleep, feeling free
A Bm G
Then I'd party all night long
D A
But I would never get too worried
Bm G
'Bout the little things in life
D A
I knew I'd won the lottery
Bm G
Cause Baby can't you see

D A
Just thinking about you as I sing this song
Bm G
Cause when you're around I can do no wrong
D A
And I'm never too sharp, never flat, Girl imagine that
Bm G D
You always know how to bring me right back
A Bm
When my pitch is off, you make it alright
G D A Bm
When it's all so wrong, you're my auto tune
G D
You can be my auto tune

D A Bm G
Now I found my way girl, ever since you came along

D A Bm G
As I listen to the radio, pumpin to my catchy song
D A Bm G
You mean more than a Grammy and all the money in world
D A
Every time that I drift off-key girl
Bm G
You continue to save me
