

Autotune

Jason Chen

This song came out yesterday, after being teased for about 3 months. Jason Chen is amazing! Both at songwriting and singing. Enjoy!

Capo 2

Eb
I was young, lost, stupid,
Bb Cm G#
Didn't know what I was doing wrong
Eb
Just eat, sleep, feeling free
Bb Cm G#
Then I'd party all night long
Eb Bb
But I would never get too worried
Cm G#
'Bout the little things in life
Eb Bb
I knew I'd won the lottery
Cm G#
Cause Baby can't you see

Eb Bb
Just thinking about you as I sing this song
Cm G#
Cause when you're around I can do no wrong
Eb Bb
And I'm never too sharp, never flat, Girl imagine that
Cm G# Eb
You always know how to bring me right back
Bb Cm
When my pitch is off, you make it alright
G# Eb Bb Cm
When it's all so wrong, you're my auto tune
G# Eb
You can be my auto tune

Eb Bb Cm G#
Now I found my way girl, ever since you came along

E♭ B♭ Cm G#
As I listen to the radio, pumpin to my catchy song
E♭ B♭ Cm G#
You mean more than a Grammy and all the money in world
E♭ B♭
Every time that I drift off-key girl
Cm G#
You continue to save me
