

Autotune

Jason Chen

This song came out yesterday, after being teased for about 3 months. Jason Chen is amazing! Both at songwriting and singing. Enjoy!

Capo 2

E
I was young, lost, stupid,
B C#m A
Didn't know what I was doing wrong
E
Just eat, sleep, feeling free
B C#m A
Then I'd party all night long
E B
But I would never get too worried
C#m A
'Bout the little things in life
E B
I knew I'd won the lottery
C#m A
Cause Baby can't you see

E B
Just thinking about you as I sing this song
C#m A
Cause when you're around I can do no wrong
E B
And I'm never too sharp, never flat, Girl imagine that
C#m A E
You always know how to bring me right back
B C#m
When my pitch is off, you make it alright
A E B C#m
When it's all so wrong, you're my auto tune
A E
You can be my auto tune

E B C#m A
Now I found my way girl, ever since you came along

E B C#m A
As I listen to the radio, pumpin to my catchy song
E B C#m A
You mean more than a Grammy and all the money in world
E B
Every time that I drift off-key girl
C#m A
You continue to save me
