Long white table linen
Where you placed your knife
And taking up important positions
With men of power and their wives
Thereâ€™s no blue blood in the kitchen.
Thereâ€™s no blue blood in the mines.
Thereâ€™s no blue blood in a soldierâ€™s coffee
Coming home from the front lines.

F C
Donâ€™t let the truth get to you.
Em Am
Donâ€™t let the truth get to you.
F C
Donâ€™t let the truth get to you.
G Am
Donâ€™t let the truth get to you.

Continue pattern for second chorus

Preachers and politicians
Conjurers and liars

Scraps of elaborate excuses
And ivory towers

Whoâ€™s on television?
Not taking any sides
Modern journalism is just a little bit tongue tied.

And when the emperorâ€™s new rhetoric
Rings hollow in the night
Itâ€™s just the redacted cadence of freedom losing its mind.

Itâ€™s the cost of doing business.
Itâ€™s a terrible price
When the change that caught you believing
Was just nickels and dimes.

Donâ€™t let the truth get to you.
Donâ€™t let the truth get to you.
Donâ€™t let the truth get to you.
Donâ€™t let the truth get to you.
