Long white table linen
Where you placed your knife
And taking up important positions
With men of power and their wives
There's no blue blood in the kitchen.
There's no blue blood in the mines.
There's no blue blood in a soldier's coffee
Coming home from the front lines.

F C

Don't let the truth get to you.

Em An

Don't let the truth get to you.

Don't let the truth get to you.

G An

Don't let the truth get to you.

Continue pattern for second chorus

Preachers and politicians Conjurers and liars Scraps of elaborate excuses And ivory towers

Who's on television? Not taking any sides Modern journalism is just a little bit tongue tied.

And when the emperorâ $\in$ <sup>MS</sup> new rhetoric Rings hollow in the night Itâ $\in$ <sup>MS</sup> just the redacted cadence of freedom losing its mind.

It $\hat{a} \in \mathbb{T}$ s the cost of doing business. It $\hat{a} \in \mathbb{T}$ s a terrible price When the change that caught you believing Was just nickels and dimes.

Donâ $\in$ Mt let the truth get to you. Donâ $\in$ Mt let the truth get to you. Donâ $\in$ Mt let the truth get to you. Donâ $\in$ Mt let the truth get to you.
