This is the sound oh oh, oh oh

Moses bare foot at the burning bush
Wants to know who spoke to him
The answer is unspeakable
Like the rush of a gentle wind

Cause the name of God
Is the sound of our breathing
Hallelujahs rise
On the wings of our hearts beating

So breathe in, breathe out
Speak it aloud oh oh, oh oh
The glory surrounds
This is the sound oh oh, oh oh

Doubters and deceivers, skeptics and believers

We speak it just the same

From birth to death, every single breath

Is whispering Your name
