[Intro] G G Em F# | G G Em F#

G Em7 F#
My door is locked, my debts are paid
I ll do the Chicago Promenade
My back was turned, I did not see
That shadow climbing up on me

I took my turn at fixing hearts
But that goes bad before it starts
I m des-per-ate now, I must say
I ll do the Chicago Promenade

If I die now before I m old
My story will be less than told
There s so much more to suffer through
Before I meet again with you

C C/B A7 A7* - A7
And I ve tried so hard and I ve been so blind
C C/B A7 A7* - A7
I thought we could all grieve one at a time.

G Em F#
I lost a friend, it felt like five
A man who wouldn t compromise
I ll think of him on New Year s Day
And do the Chicago Promenade.

G Em F# etc. (fade out)
