Verse: F, C, Dm, Bb

Well its not even being about that anymore I gotta get you down

Those tiny fragments of perfection they please me in a time

Unchanged when its not the same beginning or along awaited end...

If I knew all the words I would write myself out of here

If I was all the colors I would paint you pretty in gold in a picture, so I m told little sister

So now I m sold little sister

Why don't you tell me about the sunsets in Sweden and the laws of Eden

And how you were the rock of Gibraltar, and how they called you foxy

Well that's another whole box of pandora's, that's another whole box of them ties

Slide your foot off the gas before we crash right back into the median

Right back into the median, the median lo-oh

It separates, our house from the middle of the street...

It separates our house from the middle of the street

Talking about our house

Is on the front porch telling jokes and they swing swiftly towards happier times Expendng lines and finding more energy for the effort and getting distance from that front porch

Spotlight

But us we found peace in shadows long enough to see a monster die.

We all need to find a little space in our daydreams long enough and just so long.

Long enough, just as long, just so long as its long enough is it long enough?

Is it long enough for me? Long enough for me to chew on.

If it isn't... if it isn't .. if it ain't if it don't if it can't then it wont.

And that s just the way that it goes.
