Here's an easy-chord version of this song!
definitely not how Mraz plays it himself but it works,
especially if you're trying to concentrate more on the lyrics.

**Capo 2****

[Verse]

Am7

I got the dynamo of volition, the po-pole position

Em

F

Automatic transmission with lo-ow emissions

Am7

I'm a brand-new edition to the old edition

Em

F

With the love unconditional.

Am7

And I'm a drama abolitionist

Em

Damn no opposition to my proposition.

F

Am7

Half of a man, half magician, half a politician

Holding the mic like ammunition

Em

F

And my vision is as simple as light

*continue same chords until after chorus*

Ain't no reason we should be in a fight
No demolition, get to vote, get to say what you like.
Procreation, compositions already written by themselves.
Heck is for the people not believin in gosh

[Chorus 1]

Good job, get 'em up way high, gimme, gimme that high five.
Good time, get 'em way down low, gimme, gimme that low dough.
Good god, bring 'em back again and gimme, gimme that high ten.
You're the best definition of good intention.

Dm Em F
I do not answer the call if I do not know who is calling.

G
I guess the whole point of it all is that we never know really.

Dm Em F
Iâ€™m tryinâ€™ to keep with the Jonesâ€™, while waiting for Guns and the Roses

G
To finish what we all suppose is gonna be the shit thatâ€™s silly.

[Verse]

Oh fists knocked, bumpinâ€™ in wristlock, twistinâ€™ up a Rizla.
Kid Icirus on the transistor, Nintendo been givinâ€™ me the blister.
I bend over take it in the kisser.
My best friends are hittinâ€™ on my sister.
Try to tell â€™em that they still a wisher.
Cause she already got herself a mister.
And, besides, thatâ€™s gross to wanna diss her.
A-di-di-di-di-didnâ€™t I say, didnâ€™t I sayâ€|.

[Chorus 2]

Good job, get â€™em up way high, gimme, gimme that high five.
Good time, get â€™em way down low, gimme, gimme that low dough.
Good god, bring â€™em back again and gimme, gimme that high ten.
Youâ€™re the best definition of good versus evil.

Am7 Em
I do not keep up with statistics.

F Am7
I do not sleep without a mistress.

Em F Am7
I do not eat unless itâ€™s fixed with some kind of sweet, like a licorice.
My home is deep inside the mystics.
Iâ€™m known to keep digginâ€™ on existence.
Iâ€™m holdinâ€™ in the heat like a fish stick.
My phone it beeps because I missed it.

Dm Em F
I do not answer the call if I do not know who is calling.

G
Iâ€™m making no sense of it all, say can I get a witness.
Iâ€™m only a boy in a story, just a hallucinatory.
Trippinâ€™ on nothing there is, living in the wilderness.
With a tiger spot on my back, living life of a cat.
I just wanna relax here and write another rap tune.
Driving off on your blind manâ€™s bike,
You can say just what you like but
Nothing can stop youâ€|

Am7 Em F (x2)

[Chorus 3]

Good job, get â€™em up way high, gimme, gimme that high five.
Good time, get â€™em way down low, gimme, gimme that low dough.
Good god, bring â€™em back again and gimme, gimme that high ten.
Youâ€™re the best, Youâ€™re the best, Youâ€™re the best, Youâ€™re the best,
Youâ€™re the best, Youâ€™re the best, Youâ€™re the best.

[Chorus 1]

Youâ€™re the best definition of good intention.
Youâ€™re the best definition of good intention.
Youâ€™re the best around!
