1ª Parte:

D

Once upon a time there was a meeting of minds

C

The sun and the moon made a deal with the sky

Bm

One would take the morning and the other the night

Bb

C

Together they would blanket the world with light

D

But the moon had a shadow, he felt like a liar

C

The sun was the only one who carried the fire

Bm

The sun saw this, she kept on glowing

(Bb

C)

Bowing to the moon, never saying, you owe me

Refrão:

D

She said I ll shine on you (shine on you)

C

I will shine on you (shine on you)

Bm

I will shine on you (shine on you)

(Bb

C)

I will shine on you

D C Bm (Bb C)

2ª Parte:

D

I keep lantern for you, glowing in my heart

C

To keep from tripping over troublesome thoughts in the dark

Bm

We ain t that different, we huddle underneath the same stars

(Bb

C)

--- I see who you really are

D

You re every creature, every man, every woman and child

C

You re the closest thing I ll ever get to knowing God

Bm

Like the sun to the moon, I ll send my love and light

(Bb C)

A love like ours, it ll fill the whole sky

Refrão:

D

I will shine on you (shine on you)

C

I will shine on you (shine on you)

Bm

I will shine on you (shine on you)
