

Wonky Eye

Jason Segel

[Verse 1]

E                                B    A
 A young heart half dead somehow you seek and resuscitate
E    B    A
 An empty spots in my bed but like you said it is getting late
E    B    A
 A vacant dream in the night that only leaves me more empty still
E    B    A
 I pray that you ll be alright love but somehow I know you will

[Chorus]

E                B
 Wonky eye
                   A
 Your not looking at me
                   E                B
 Wonky eye Wonky eye
                   A
 How I wish that you might see
                   E                B
 its suicide
                   A
 to leave if you know youll die
                   E
 How I need you
                   B    A
 How I need you wonky eye

[Verse 2]

E                                B    A
 Another song half-sung I guess this voice it cant cry no more
E    B    A
 Its fine to fight for love but love which side are you fighting for
E    B    A
 its fine to scream out my name but only fine when the curtains drawn
E    B    A
 you save a fly cause its right but killing me is only half as wrong

[Chorus]

E                B
 Wonky eye
                   A
 Your not looking at me
                   E                B
 Wonky eye Wonky eye
                   A
 How I wish that you might see

E        B

its suicide

A

to leave if you know youll die

E

How I need you

B

A

How I need you wonky eye
