

When The Time Comes
Jason Upton

Verse 1:

G D G D
You are wisdom but you ask questions
Bm F#m Asus A
Thank you God for never telling me a lie
G D G D
Your decisions are mostly hidden
Bm F#m Asus A
The stage you stand upon is not for human eyes

Bridge:

Em7 F#m G
You tell me not to worry about to-morrow But I worry any-way
Em7 F#m
You tell me youâ€™ll take care of all my troubles
G
Jesus, teach me how to wait...

Verse 2:

G D G D
You are future but you are present
Bm F#m Asus A
Thank you God for never running from your past
G D G D
Youâ€™re com-mitted to your cre-ation
Bm F#m Asus A
For every-thing youâ€™ve made your love forever lasts

Bridge:

Em7 F#m G
You tell me not to worry about to-morrow but I worry any-way
Em7 F#m
You tell me youâ€™ll take care of all my troubles
G -> A
Jesus, teach me how to wait...

Chorus:

Bm Em G A
Cause when the time comes, I will see for-ever
Bm Em G A
When the time comes, itâ€™ll be all right
Bm Em G A
Em G A
When the time comes I will be the one asking why

Bm Em G A (to complete eight bar break and then repeat chorus)

On second repeat, after Bm Em, play:

G A
Why did I ever doubt you....

Bm Em G A
Why did I ever doubt you....

Listen to the track for the timing of the chorus. It s pretty easy to figure it out and all freeeeeeeee worship anyways, right? Enjoy!

Beautiful track :)
