

When The Time Comes

Jason Upton

Verse 1:

A          E                  A          E
You are wisdom      but you ask questions
          C#m                  G#m                  Bsus  B
Thank you God for never telling me a lie
          A          E                  A          E
Your decisions      are mostly hidden
                  C#m                  G#m                  Bsus  B
The stage you stand upon is not for human eyes

Bridge:

F#m7                                  G#m                                  A
You tell me not to worry about to-morrow But I worry any-way
          F#m7                                  G#m
You tell me youâ€™ll take care of all my troubles
  A
Jesus, teach me how to wait...

Verse 2:

A          E                  A          E
You are future      but you are present
          C#m                  G#m                  Bsus  B
Thank you God for never running from your past
          A          E                  A          E
Youâ€™re com-mitted      to your cre-ation
          C#m                                  G#m                  Bsus  B
For every-thing youâ€™ve made your love forever lasts

Bridge:

F#m7                                  G#m                                  A
You tell me not to worry about to-morrow but I worry any-way
          F#m7                                  G#m
You tell me youâ€™ll take care of all my troubles
  A                  -> B
Jesus, teach me how to wait...

Chorus:

C#m  F#m          A                                  B
Cause when the time comes,      I will see for-ever
          C#m  F#m          A                                  B
When the time comes,      itâ€™ll be all right
          C#m  F#m          A                                  B
          F#m  A  B
When the time comes I will be the one asking why

Bm Em G A (to complete eight bar break and then repeat chorus)
