

Blank Stares

Jay Allen

Em
There's a voicemail that I keep
D
I listen to it, just to hear you speak
G
"Hey Son.." turns to silence just like that
Em
You know I love you walking by
D
Like you saw the phone in your hand and you didn't know why
G
It's crazy how you come and go so fast
Em D
Oh how do I get you back
Em C
If I could only seal the cracks you're slipping through
D Em D G
Wish I didn't feel so helpless when it comes to helping you
Hold on
D
So I keep holding on
C
To every little memory made of you and me
D Em D
Every little glimpse of who you used to be
G
I know you're still in there
D C Em D
Deep down somewhere I swear I still see you
C Em D
Between the blank stares
Em
It's the first thing that I think about
D
When I wake up and when I lay down
G D
It's the last thing I feel crawling through my mind
Em
I'm still trying to understand it
D
Sitting next to you holding your hand
G
And hoping you won't fade away this time
D

Just stay a little while

Em
