

Rexs Blues

Jay Farrar

Kelly Willis                Rex s Blues    written by Townes Van Zandt
Jay Farrar

E                          A                          E
Ride the blue wind high and free

E                          A                          E
It ll lead you down through misery

E                          A                          E
Leave you low, come time to go

A                          E
Alone and low as low can be

E A E
 If I had a nickel I d find a game
E A E
 If I won a dollar I d make it rain
E A E
 If it rained an ocean I d drink it dry
A E
 And lay me down dissatisfied

E                          A                      E
Legs to walk and thoughts to fly

A                      E
Eyes to laugh and lips to cry

A        E
A restless tongue to classify

E                      A                      E
All born to grow and grown to die

SOLO

[illegible]

E                                  A                  E
I m chained upon the face of time
E                                  A                  E

Feelin full of foolish rhyme

E A E
There ain t no dark till something shines
A E
I m bound to leave this dark behind

E A E
Ride the blue wind high and free
E A
It ll lead you down through misery
E A E
Leave you low, come time to go
A E
Alone and low as low can be
