VERSE:

D Bm
You found me yet alive at the bottom of the sea
G A
Atlantic Ocean headed north at 95 degrees
D Bm
You threw me a rope and we were rocked by a swell
G A
I warned you it was coming & I think it s just as well
G A D G D
Cos I donâ€™t wanna drown before my feet even touch the ground

CHORUS:

D Bm
Thank you very much
G A
And even know I never said as such
D Bm
I was grateful I was glad
G A
But you played God in all the chances that I had

Well my heart was now restrung with strings, Just six of them in all & we played all six together in a sold out city hall
You fed me fat with lies about the people that were there
Oh you could talk up all most anything, you talked me up for air
I might as well go drift in the north Atlantic sea
G A D G D
There s not a shark with teeth as sharp that could ever bother me

CHORUS:

So I said let us break our bloody bond
It just went on and on and on
You turned a funny shade of bitter my old pal
Perhaps you should employ some rationale

BRIDGE:

D, Bm, G, A (x2)

CHORUS:

Oh won't you die a horrid death
In pain and nothing less
I hope you perish at the bottom of the sea
And that your partner never comes anywhere near me

G* A D G D
Cos I could never love you two again

G* A D G D
You were pretty ghastly choices for my friends

G A
I know you are what you are

D Bm
I hear you re both driving pretty nice cars

G A D
I d like to tell you that your boy s got his sight firmly set on the stars
