Well, if I had my way
E
You d have a birthday every week
F C
And you d choose to spend them all with me
C
I d come down to the bus stop,
E
Say you can t go to work
F C
You d take my hand faithfully
C
Then I d gift wrap my heart
E
And I d write you a new song
F C
I d try to right all your wrongs
C
I would play with your hair
E

And suggest what to wear

F

C

And I'd paint a smile where it belongs

Am

E

But I know that you're not broken

F

C

And I know that you're not bruised

E

I know I'm easily forgotten

F

C

So Happy Birthday You

C

Oh and every week I'd take you someplace

E

You've not been before

F

C

I'd try to keep it under wraps

C

Well we never drove to Paris

E

And I've never been to Prague

C

We should try them out, perhaps

C

And we can document our travels

E

On a handheld camera

F

C

Put them to a theme song of kind

If you've nothing left to show for it

E

The story never fits

C

And the notion of the day is undermined

Am

E

But I know that you're not broken

F

C

And I know that you're not bruised

Am

E

I know I'm easily forgotten

F

C

So Happy Birthday You

[Trumpet solo]

C

Well when we get home you're tired

E

But you don't want to go to bed

F

C

So you lay in my arms instead

C

You'd say tonight was just perfection

E

And I don't want to go to sleep

C

Can we do the same next week?

Am

E

But I know that you're not broken

F

C

And I know that you're not bruised

Am

E

I know I'm easily forgotten

So Happy Birthday You
