If you follow your heart you re bound to get hurt
C D Em G
because love is blind it is rarely kind C D G
when it is it is usually short-lived

I tried to restrain myself took a silly step I had planned to take it slowly but in retrospect I leapt so if you wanna walk with me, come on and hold my hand and hold my gaze into your pupil both expand now i laid it on the table, put the ball in your court and I ain t something so trivial to destroy your whole town court if you feelin lonely and would like some company i will drop my plans and claim that i was free.

If you follow your heart you re bound to get hurt
because love is blind it is rarely kind
when it is it is usually short-lived
