

Due South Theme
Jay Semko

Apparently the first Jay Semko transcription on the web, so here s a brief introduction.

Many people noticed this song while viewing the famous Due South TV-shows back in the 90s but few knew that this gifted Canadian singer/songwriter, former Northern Pikes bassman and nice bloke was the man behind it. Check him out here: www.jaysemko.com

(capo on II)

Intro: G G, Em,C G, Em,C

G Em C

Highway to the northern sky will carry you away

G Em C

You know you have to leave here, you wish that you could stay

D C

There s four directions on this map, but you re only going one way

Em C D

Due South, that s the way I m going

Em C D

Due South

Em C D

Saddling up my travelling shoes, I m bound to walk away these blues

Em C D

Due South

G, Em,C, G, Em,C

G Em C

You can walk a hundred thousand miles and never find a home

G Em C

You always knew someday you d have to strike out on your own

D C

You look up at the clouds and you can see which way the wind is blowing

Em C D

Due South, that s the way I m going

Em C D

Due South

Em C D

Saddling up my travelling shoes, I m bound to walk away these blues

Em C D

Due South

Due South, that s the way I m going

Due South

Saddling up my travelling shoes, I m bound to walk away these blues

Due South

Due South

Due South