

Corduroy

Jaymay

C

The train is so cold tonight

F

My fingers too numb to write

Dm

G

But I write to spite the cold

C

And moon I can see you there

F

You re still hanging in there

Dm

G

Though you are so very old

C

F

And I m just thinking about a boy

C

F

Wearing wintergreen corduroy

C

You re waking me where I sleep

F

You re taking me where I keep on

Dm

G

Telling myself not to go

C

What am I supposed to do

F

All by myself without you

Dm

G

On a train moving so slow

C

F

I m just thinking about a boy

C

F

Wearing wintergreen corduroy

Em

F

On the train again moving away from you

Em

F

On the train again moving away from you

Em

F

Fm

On the train again I never wanted to leave

C

The sun has set in the west

F

The moon is doing her best

Dm G
To light up the sky tonight

C
I look to the moon for you

F
Maybe you're looking too

Dm G
It's really a lovely sight

C F
And I'm just thinking about a boy

C F
Wearing my wintergreen corduroy

Em F
On the train again moving away from you

Em F
On the train again moving away from you

Em F Fm
On the train again I never intended to leave you

C
The train is so cold
