

In My Arms Tonight

J.D. Souther

[Intro]

C Fmaj7 C Fmaj7 C

[Verse]

C Fmaj7 C Fmaj7 C

That chip upon your shoulder makes you seem much older

C Fmaj7 G C

but you re just a kid in dangerous disguise

C Fmaj7 C Fmaj7 C

I know where you ve been sleeping and you really should be weeping

C Fmaj7 G C

for every time you never caught the prize

[Chorus]

F G

I don t want to kiss you

F G

and i don t really miss you

Am G F

You say that you re not ready and you re right

Dm7 G C

but still I want you in my arms tonight.

C Fmaj7 C

Now you jump at hidden dangers

C Fmaj7 C

you run to perfect strangers

C Fmaj7 G C

and you know more than you ll ever realize

C Fmaj7 C

you want to be my girlfriend

C Fmaj7 C

its like standing in a whirlwind

C Fmaj7 G C

though this might truly cut us down to size.

F G F G

I don t want to kiss you and I don t really miss you

Am G F

we re either out too loose, or in too tight

Dm7 G C

but still I want you in my arms tonight.

C Fmaj7 C Fmaj7 C

Make me think of Annabeth with pretty feet and perfect breath

C Fmaj7 G C

I got on the boat and she stayed on the shore

C                    Fmaj7                    C

Now the world around me is sinking

C                    Fmaj7                    C

but I m no worse off then I d be thinking

that it s you whose knocking at my door.

F                    G

Baby I don t want to kiss you, much

F                    G

I don t really miss your touch

Am                    G                    F

now thats just not right.

Dm7                    G

Now here I want you in my arms

F                    G                    C

I can feel you in my arms tonight.

C

Tonight
