G|-2-----2-----2-----|
D|-----|
A|-----|
E|-----|
```

Bm            G                            D                            A                            Bm
I wasn't put here on this earth to work like I do all week
G                            D                            A                            Bm
I don't live to punch that clock and come home and eat and sleep
G                            D
I was made for something more
A                            G                            Em
And God's made it pretty clear, I'm only here

Chorus

Bm    G                            D                            A
For one thing and one thing only
Bm    G                            D                            A
To love you and keep you from ever getting lonely
Bm                            G                            D
To be your rock that never rolls
A                            Bm
To hold your body, touch your soul
A                            G
And fill your every need,
Em                            A                            Bm
I'm only here for one thing

(Intro Riff)

Bm            G                            D
How many men walk through this life
A            Bm            G                            D
And never even know the reason they're alive
A                            Bm                            G                            D
Oh, And then it's time to go but I don't ever have to wonder
A                            G                            Em
Cause, baby, when you're near, I know I'm here

Chorus

Bm G D A
 For one thing and one thing only
Bm G D A
 To love you and keep you from ever getting lonely
Bm G D
 To be your rock that never rolls
A Bm
 To hold your body, touch your soul
A G Em A Bm
 And fill your every need, I m only here for one thing
