

Some Birds
Jeff Tweedy

[Intro]

G D Em
C G A G

[Verse 1]

D
Some birds just sit useless, like fists
Am G
I wrestle on TV but no one ever lets me win
D
I lean on the wall like a broom
D
Confused by the scope it all
Am G
Any fool can tell the truth

[Pre-Chorus 1]

Am7 A7 D
And no, I don't think I should
Am Am7 A7
Add one to the sum
D
Of all that you fear

[Chorus]

G D Em C
IÃ¢Äd love to take you down
G A G
And leave you there

[Verse 2]

In my window, I have a twin
D
I look out, he looks in
D
He has a point, I applaud
Am G
My goodness, my god
D
Is it my fault the countrysides
D
Are so full of suicide?

I break bricks with my heart
 Dm G
Only a fool would call it art

[Pre-Chorus 2]

A A7 D D7
And no, I don t think that I should
 A7
Be one of the sum
D
Of all that you fear

[Chorus]

G D Em C
IÃ¢Äd love to take you down
G A G
And leave you there
 D Em C
IÃ¢Äd love to take you down
G A7 G
And leave you there

[Solo]

D G Am G

[Verse 3]

So why fuss, why not bend
 D
Like a nail, hammered in?

Oh, times are tough
 Am
If I recall, oh, it ain t easy
 G
No, not all

[Pre-Chorus 3]

A7 D
And no, I don t think I should
 Am7 A7
Complete the sum
 D
Of all that you fear

[Chorus]

G D Em C
IÃ¢Äd love to take you down

G A G
And leave you there

[Outro]

D Em
I d love to take you down
C Em A7 A G
Down and leave you there
