Paine and Pierce and Robespierre, Juarez and Danton,
E	D	E
Luther, King and Lumumba dead but far from gone
G	D	G	D
Lenin, Cleaver, Jesus too, outlaws in their nations,
G	D	A
Revolutionaries all, dreamed of liberation
E	G	D
God is up in heaven his agents here on earth
A	G	D
The church has said that this man rules, he s best because of birth.
Em	D	G	D
But what s that noise down in the street, who dares to shout and sing?
G	D	A
With all his courtiers at his side, who dares to touch the king?
E	G	E
Old man get some soldiers, keep them close at hand
A	G	D
There s a fire in the country, there s a flame come to the land
G	D	G	D
Seven thousand loyal troops, in ranks they stretch so far
G	D	A
With seven thousand well armed men, no one can touch the czar.
E	G	D
Louis watch the prisons, send the goons around
A	G	D

Is that Paris burning, is the Bastille falling down?

G D G D

And where are all the mercenaries - paid for by the king?

G D A

Have they joined the mob you say, doesn't money mean anything?

E G D

Old men get some soldiers, keep them close at hand,

A G D

The seeds that were sown yesterday now flower in the land

G D G D

And guard yourself most carefully with military might.

G D A

For plants that cannot bloom by day must flower in the night.

then just shred it in E with the wahwah in there na mean?
