

Good Shepherd
Jefferson Airplane

From: * (Mark R. Rubin)

- o The following should help you get started. It s what I transcribed from the record a while back; no guarantees of accuracy, etc. In particular, I think the signature acoustic guitar riff (marked intro below, but really runs through the whole song) is played by two guitars, one or both of them in an open tuning. I think the notes I have are right, but the voicings aren t.
- o Also, I didn t tab the electric guitar lead part. It s fairly easy to figure out and play.
