

Greasy Heart
Jefferson Airplane

Am

Lady, you keep asking why he likes you how come

Am

Wonder why he wants more if he just had some

Em

D

Am

Boys, she's got more to play with in the way of toys

Am

Ladies eyes go off and on with a finger full of glue

Am

Lips are drawn upon her face in come-to-me tattoo

Em

Am

Creamy suntan color that fades when she bathes

Am

Paper dresses catch on fire & you lose her in the haze

F

G

Am

Don't ever change lady, he likes you that way

Am

Because he just had his hair done and he wants to use your wig

Am

He's going off the drug thing cause his veins are getting big

Em

Am

He wants to sell his paintings but the market is slow

Am

They're only paying him two grams now for a one-man abstract show

F

Am

Don't ever change people even if you can

Am

You are your own best toy to play with remote control hands

Am

Made for each other made in Japan

Em

Am

Woman with a greasy heart, automatic man

Am

Don't ever change people your face will hit the fan

F

Am

Don't ever change people even if you can

Em

Don't change before the empire falls You'll laugh so hard you'll crack the walls
