

Two Heads

Jefferson Airplane

(intro 2x) F#m

F#m C#m E
You want two heads on your body
F#m E
And you ve got two mirrors in your hand.
B5 A C#m A
Priests are made of brick with gold crosses on a stick
G A C#m F#m
and your nose is too small for this land.

A
Inside your head is your town
A
inside your room your jail
A
inside your mouth the elephant s trunk and booze
A F#m
the only key to your bail

F#m C#m E
Two heads can be put together.
F#m E
And you can fill both your feet with sand.
B5 A C#m
No one will know you ve gutted your mind
A G A C#m F#m
but what will you do with your bloody hands?

A
Your lions are fighting with chairs,
A
your arms are incredibly fat;
A
Your women are tired of dying alive
A F#m
if you ve had any women at that.

F#m C#m E
Wearing your comb like an ax in your head
F#m E
List ning for signs of life;
B5 A C#m A
Children are sucking on stone and lead
G A C#m F#m
And chasing their hoops with a knife;

A

New breasts and jewels for the girl,

A

Keep them polished and shining;

A

Put a lock on her belly at night, sweet life,

A

F#m

For no child of mine.
