

Glutton Of Sympathy
Jellyfish

G

In the breathless hush of four A.M.

G7

In the dark sits a sad cliché

C

Cm

Cloaked in the navy blue of slowly fading stars

G

Tell me how this came to be

D

Sleeplessness talk to me

C

G

She'd say over and over again

Fumbling through a cut glass vase

Passing lipstick, cotton spools

Burning jealous pictures of marriages of friends

You never asked to be

The glutton of sympathy

She says over and over that this is the end

F C G

Cause I see it in your eyes

D

What you don't know

C

G

Time to let go

F C G

I see it in your eyes

C

There is so much

D

G

More out there to be learned

Such mournful words

On this white snow vacant page

All the lessons that she learns she packs away

Will you never cease to be

The glutton of sympathy

She writes over and over again

That's when I see it in your eyes

What you don't know

Time to let go

I see it in your eyes

There is so much

More out there to be learned

Cm G

Tossing turning roll away

Dm

Indecision won't you ever make up your mind

Cm G

Lifetime nighttime wake the day

Bm

Cause tomorrow will see

B

If you've had your fill of sympathy

G

Will you never cease to be

D

The glutton of sympathy

C

G/B

Don't you know the stars are all fading

Bb

F

G

Let the sunshine capture the sparkle of your smile
