C Cmaj7
 Curtain opens, spotlights the gentleman
C7
 Singing his love letter best wishes simpleton
Am G F/A G
 Dialog swam from his pen like pollywogs

He knew it better that perfume was gravity
 Pulling him closer to what could be tragedy
 Love is blind, deaf, and dumb, but never mind.

Am G D
 You better catch me when I fall
E
 I m on my roller skates
Am Am/G# G D/F#
 Cause any old way that I fall
F G
 I land in you arms even though I m wrong
Am G
 Cause I love my new mistake.

Intermission gave way to a miracle
 The birth of an accident grew to a spectacle
 That couldn t wait the mother was three weeks late.

So Father Mason clutching his crucifix
 Baptized the baby in whiskey and licorice
 What a lovely way drowning sins in tooth decay

Looks like our hero s gonna fall
 The bow s about to break
 Cause any old way that I fall
 I ll be in your arms as we lie awake
 Cause I love my new mistake

Eb Ebmaj7 Eb7
Ab Bb Cm Bb/D (repeat)
 G.....

You better catch me when I fall
My sugar trampoline
Cause any ole way that I fall
I land in your arms even though it s wrong
Cause I love my new mistake

The ending turned tragic when many years later
The baby had grown up and married a pop singer
I guess it was her turn to make her first mistake

Any ole time at all
Any ole way that I fall
I just lie awake with my new mistake
