Em D

I hope you remember me

Am

I was your daddy once

D

Wearing the sailor cap and dirty nails

To you I m just a picture on your mother s mantlepiece

Em

Who chose to fight the good fight in time to fail

G

Into battle

And in your shadow

D#dim7 Em

Your daddy loves you still

Yes I do

I never thought it d be so hard to see you grow so fast And turn into the man I used to be

But I hope you have more sense than I in matters such as these Medals don t mean shit when a family is so lost at sea

Into battle

And in your shadow

Your daddy loves you still

Yes he does

Yes he does

I save every moment I ve reached out and almost touched you

But they all fade away must be a bad memory
