from Transmitter Failure

C Am F C

C Am
Well you re sitting on the barstool
F C
Keeping motionless as you can be
C Am
Thinking maybe if you lucky
F C Am
Life is like T-Rex and stillness will sweep you away
G C
To where its safe

C Am
Cause you re feeling like the last person
F C
Left on the planet tonight
C Am
And your scanning the horizon
F C Am
Seeking out sign of life and you pray you re wrong but you re right
G C
So hold on tight

C Am F C
Cause all that stares back at you are bloodless zombie eyes
C Am F C Am F
Why don t come on home with me tonight, alright, alright

Am G C F
I m not trying to make you think this is some kind of great big deal
Am G C
I just know exactly how you feel
Am G C F
I could be the one you reach for in the middle of the night
Am G C F
Let me be the one who treats you right
Am G C F
Let me be the one who treats you right

C Am
Now I know you never seen me
F C
There s no reason for you to pay mine

C Am
 But I m asking very nicely
F C Am
 All it takes is one chance to start leaving the dead behind
G C
 And try out walking life

C Am
 What s the worst thing that could happen
F C
 We find out that we don t fit
C Am
 But on the flipside we could be just right
F C Am
 And sure there s a chance that we ll both and up broken and split
G C
 But thats my kind of risk

C
 So quit worrying where they ll fall if you should roll the dice
C Am F
 Why don t you come home with me tonight, alright, alright

Am G C F
