This is a real fun song, I love it (:

I use a Capo, I think it sounds better, but you don t need to (:

Am C
I was born in a mortuary
G
Full of worry
F Am
Ice water in my veins
C
Gave my heart in the school library
G D
Never knew her name

Am C
Lost my tongue in the sanctuary
G
â€œHeaven spare me!â€•
F Am
Hands raised above my head
C
Sent my brain to the seminary
G D
Never seen again...

Am-Am7
Swing low
E-Em7
Grey bones
G D
I don t know
F E
If I ll ever be whole again

Am C
Left my spine in the wedding chapel
G
Full of people
F Am
Feet turning into lead
C
Lost a leg at the iron foundry
G D
Where they found me dead

Am C

Drained my blood at the mortuary

G

No more worry

F Am

Ice water in my veins

C

Took my bones to the cemetery

G D

Where they still remain

Am-Am7

So swing low

E-Em7

Grey bones

G D

I don t know

F E

If I ll ever be whole again
