Charlie Dunn
Jerry Jeff Walker

[Verse 1]

D
Well if you re ever in Austin Texas
        G                 D
A little run down on your sole
        G                           D
I m gonna tell you the name of an old man to see
            E7                        A
I m gonna tell you right where to go.
      D
He s working in Capitol Saddlery
      G                           D
He s sewing in the back of the place
            G                         D
His name is Charlie Dunn the little frail one
        A                       D
With the smile and the leathery face.

[Chorus]

        G                         D
Charlie Dunn, he s the one to see
        A                               D      D7
Charlie done the boots that are on my feet.
          G                             D
It makes Charlie real pleased to see me walkin  in these
        A                       D
Charlie Dunn, he s the one to see.

[Verse 2]

Charlie s been makin  boots over there
                G                 D
He says  bout fifty some odd years.
    G                         D
And once you wear a pair of his hand-mades boy,
        E7                        A
you ll never wear no store-bought pair.
Charlie can tell what s wrong with your feet
        G                       D
Just by feelin   em with his hands.

    G                             D
And he can take a look at the boots you wear
          A                 D
And know a whole lot about the man.

[Chorus]

       G                      D
Charlie Dunn, he s the one to see
       A                         D     D7
Charlie done the boots that are on my feet.
          G                      D
It makes Charlie real pleased to see me walkin  in these
        A                 D
Charlie Dunn, he s the one to see.

[Bridge]

        Bm
And ol  Buck s up front he s countin  up his gold
A
Charlie s in the back patchin  up the soles
        Bm
All the people comin  in smilin  at him
          A                 A7
They all wonder how s ol  Charlie been.
G                           A                 D     Bm
Buck s makin  change but he never ever sees no one
       G                   A                 D
And he never understood a good thing ol  Charlie done.

[Instrumental]

[Verse 3]

D
Charlie s never had his name on a sign
   G                      D
He don t put a mark in the boot.
        G             D
He just hopes you can remember him
          E7                    A
 Bout the same way that he does you.
   D
He keeps your measurements in a lit-tle book
          G                    D
So you can order more boots later on.
        G                 D
Well I m writin  down ol  Charlie s size
      A                D
I m a makin  him up a song.

[Chorus]

        G                        D
Charlie Dunn, he s the one to see
        A                               D     D7
Charlie done the boots that are on my feet.
         G                            D
It makes Charlie real pleased to see me walkin  in these
         A                    D
Charlie Dunn, he s the one to see.

[Outro]

G                        A                D    Bm
Buck s up front but he never ever sees no one
       G                    A                   D
And he never understood a good thing ol  Charlie done.
