

It All Depends (Who Will Buy the Wine)

Jerry Lee Lewis

C F
The kind of life you re living since you left me
G7 C
I m sure it s not the life you thought you chose
F
That honky tonky world is not so flashy
G7 C
Bright lights and booze is all it really knows
F
Not long ago you held our babies bottle
G7 C
But the one you re holding now is a different kind
F
You just sit and wait to be somebody s baby
G7 C
And it all depends on who will buy the wine
F C
Who ever sets them up and tips the waitress
G7
Your kind of love just might as well be blind
C F
You ll never know whos lips you ll soon be kissing
G7 C
And it all depends on who will buy the wine
