

Thursday

Jess Glynne

[Verse]

I won't wear makeup on Thursday
I'm sick of covering up
I'm tired of feeling so broken
I'm tired of falling in love
Sometimes I'm shy and I'm anxious
Sometimes I'm down on my knees
Sometimes I'll try to embrace all my insecurities
So I won't wear makeup on Thursday
Cause who I am is enough

[Pre-Chorus]

And there are many things that I could change so slightly
But why would I succumb to something so unlike me?
I was always taught to just be myself
Don't change for anyone

[Chorus]

I wanna laugh, I wanna cry
Don't want these tears inside my eyes, yeah
Don't wanna wake up and feel insecure
I wanna sing, I wanna dance
I wanna feel love inside my hands again
I just wanna feel beautiful

[Post-Chorus]

Oh-oh-oh-oh, I-

G

Oh-oh-oh-oh, I-

F

Am

C

Oh-oh-oh, I I just wanna feel beautiful

[Verse 2]

Am

G

I'll wear my sweatpants on Thursday

F

And I'll drink soft drink from a can

Am

G

I'll build my own independence

F

I don't always need a man

Am

You know sometimes I feel lonely

G

Could do with the company

F

Oh, I get high when I'm down

F

But you know that s--- alright with me

Am

G

So I will do nothing on Thursday

F

Sit alone and be

[Pre-Chorus]

F

G

And there are many things that I could change so slightly

Am

Em

But why would I succumb to something so unlike me?

F

G

I was always taught to just be myself
