

Ridgetop

Jesse Colin Young

jesse coming to play in my little town next month and going to see him for the first time , rembered a song that i listend to so much i heard it in my sleep sat down and gave it another go this is what i came up with:

Bm Em Bm
Well, I live on a ridgetop lord knows I like it just fine,

Em Bm
Where its windy and foggy and quiet most all the time,

Em Bm
Will my lawn is pine needles my driveway ole funky dirt,

Bm (pause) G A G A Bm
My front pathway markers are pieces of granite and chert

The cord progession just keeps repeating throught the song. The only part i havent got is the middle where the band lets go, I will have to work on that and see what I come up with anyway, there you are ,anybody else want to give a try and help document this 70 s classic.
