G D
I said don t do it babe

E
Said it ain t worth it babe

A
But you did it anyway

E
Four or five drinks and you were on your way

G D A
September 1st, 2003

E G
It took the life right out of me

D
Hung up the phone

A
And raced out the door

E
Broken

G D A
I tried to believe that it wasn t true

E G
But in my heart I always knew

D A E
That being the life of the party would catch up to you

F Am
Your family was waiting and crying for three damn hours

G D
I said don t do it babe

E
Said it ain t worth it babe

A
But you did it anyway

E A
Four or five drinks and you were on your way

F G
Everything was cool on the straight away

Am F E
But you took that turn doing eighty-five in a thirty-five

Em
Why babe?

G D A
Every time I m home I pass that road

E G

Driving alone and the street feels cold

D A

Seeing your face yeah it s haunting me

E G

My mind goes crazy tryin to figure out

D A

Just where you d be four years from now

E G A

And what you were thinking when the lights came down

F Am

Doctors were trying to save you for three damn hours

G D

I said don t do it babe

E

Said it ain t worth it babe

A

But you did it anyway

E A

Four or five drinks and you were on your way

F G

Everything was cool on the straight away

Am F E

But you took that turn doing eighty-five in a thirty-five

Em

Why babe?

Am F

Who ever said that life was fair

Am

When you live without a care

F

When you re invincible

When you re invincible

Am

When you re invincible

F Em

Who thinks about leaving when you re livin

G D

I said don t do it babe

E

Said it ain t worth it babe

A

But you did it anyway
