He left us for Chicago, he said itâ€™s warmer there I think

F C Am G

Last we ever heard, He found a wife and learned to drink

F C F C

But she no longer loves him, he still canâ€™t pay his rent

F C Am G

When he tries to fall asleep at night, he wonders where it went

He says

Chorus

Am G F C

My love, my love. What happened to our children?

Am G

My Love, my love.

Am G F C

My love, my love. What happened to our children?

Am G

Oh my love, my love.

She moved to Montana, she thought she found the one
He used to call her Anna, till she woke and he was gone.
She never tried to find him, sheâ€™s living with the scars.
Forgettingâ€™s never easy, but itâ€™s harder when itâ€™s dark.
She says

Chorus

My love, my love. What happened to our future?

My love, my love.

My love, my love. What happened to our future?

Oh my love, my love.

He drove out of Nashville, the day she passed away.
There was nothing left to keep him there, no reason he should stay.
He has no destination, he threw away the map.
Now thereâ€™s no one left to talk to, just her picture on the dash.
He says

Chorus

My love, my love. I wish that you were with me.

My love, my love.

My love, my love. I wish that you were with me.
Oh my love, my love.
