

Teardrops Fall
Jessica Lowndes

C Am
Standing right in front of me
F G
Right where you used to be
C Am
Memories all I can see
F G
Drifting in the sky
C Am
And now I have to go
F G
But I need you to know
C Am
I love too much and so
F G
I have to say goodbye

C Am
But it s better to have loved and lost
F G
Than never to have loved at all
C Am
I wish I could believe these words
F G
While my lonely teardrops fall

C Am
A laughing couple in the rain
F G
Makes me miss you once again
C Am
Wonder if you think of me
F G
Trying not to care
C Am
Lying all alone in bed
F G
I go over the things you said
C Am
Was it all in my head?
F G
Were you ever really there?

C Am
It s better to have loved and lost
F G
Than never to have loved at all
C Am
I wish I could believe these words
F G
While my lonely teardrops fall
C Am
Time will heal this broken heart
F G
And I ll stop hoping that you ll call
C Am
I wish I could believe these words
F G
While my lonely teardrops fall

C Am F G
I wish I knew how to get over you
C Am F
Sometimes it hurts so much that I wonder when
G
Or if I ll ever love again

C Am
It s better to have loved and lost
F G
Than never to have loved at all
C Am
I wish I could believe these words
F G
While my lonely teardrops fall
