

Square One
Jessie J

- STANDARD TUNING

C#m E A
Roll the dice, double two, no more us, no me and you
C#m E A
What a struggle, I took a risk, another life, another kiss
C#m E A
I start again, it keeps going, we re best friends, not even knowing
C#m E A
I win the race, and then I fall, I gave it up, to have it all

C#m E
We let go of love so we can go again
We don t hesitate to let somebody in
C#m E
To build a home just to get lost
A
We fire it up just to burn it off

C#m E A
I don t wanna, hold hands with a stranger.
C#m E A
I don t wanna walk when I just learned how to run.
C#m E A
I don t wanna care, cause it s human nature
C#m E A
I don t wanna go go go go back to square one.

SINGLE STRUM

F#m G#m
Said she don t wanna go go back to square one
I just wanna be the one.

----- PATTERN CONTINUES -----

In the dark, it s brand new
You re teaching me, I m teaching you
Imagination, I wanna please

But I m tired of the tease
Give you substance, I need soul
Not just a moment to come and go
It s not simple, it never is
Another life, another kiss

We let go of love so we can go again
We don t hesitate to let somebody in
To build a home just to get lost
We fire it up just to burn it off

I don t wanna, hold hands with a stranger
I don t wanna walk when I just learnt how to run
I don t wanna care, cause it s human nature
I don t wanna go go go back to square one

F#m G#m
She says she don t wanna go go back to square one,
A F#m G#m A
She just wanna find someone that she needs, she needs, she needs.
(REPEATED)

I don t wanna, hold hands with a stranger.
I don t wanna walk when I just learnt how to run.
I don t wanna care, cause it s human nature
I don t wanna go go go

She says she don t wanna go go back to square one
She just wanna find the one
Someone that she needs, she needs, she needs
She says she don t wanna go go back to square one
She just wanna find the one
Someone that she needs, she needs, she needs

I don t wanna, hold hands with a stranger.
I don t wanna walk when I just learnt how to run.
I don t wanna care, cause it s human nature
I don t wanna go go go
