Bridge
   D                            B
I know that you think that you made it
   D                 B
I know what I meant to say
D                      B
While you looked in the mirror
              D
I was getting away

For you there is there is nothing to say
