Lick #2:

This one is played behind most of the verses, during the G chord.
The tab below assumes you re playing an open G (30023); just work this pattern into your finger-picking, if any. It also sounds nice when moved down an octave, but you need to go to dropped-D tuning.

e	-----	-----	(Played twice behind 1st
B	--0--0h1--0-----	-----	line of each verse)
G	-----2--	--0--0-----
D	-----	-----0h2--0--
A	-----	-----
E	-----	-----
