`way down on Beggar s Farm.

(rest the same)

I pay my money for no returns.

I think I need you. Going to find someone.

Oh, you don t fool me. `Cos I know what you feel.

When you go out I ask you why.

And I won t worry when I see you lying down on Beggar s Farm.

When you run to me, going to turn away.

Won t even listen when you try to say that you were only fooling around --

`Cos I know what you feel.

But if you ask me nicely, woman --

I ll wake up early one day soon and

I ll visit you down on Beggar s Farm.
