Look Into The Sun Jethro Tull

G A Е Α Took a sad song of one sweet evening E G D A I smiled and quickly turned away. Α E G Α It s not easy singing sad songs E G D Α but still the easiest way I have to say. G DA So when you look into the sun D G Α and see the things we haven t done --G D oh was it better then to run С Α than to spend the summer crying. C G Α Now summer cannot come anyway.

E GA Α

A E GA She pretended not to want love --DA G So when you look into the sun G D Or was it better then to run C G Α And summer could have come in a day.

Е

А

E G D Α I had waited for time to change her. The only change that came was over me.

> G D A Ε I hope she was only fooling me. G D A look for the pleasures nearly won. C А than to spend the summer singing.

G D A Е So if you hear my sad song singing remember who and what you nearly had.

Α

E GΑ Е G D Α Α It s not easy singing sad songs when you can sing the song to make me glad.

G G DA DA and see the words you could have sung: So when you look into the sun

D С G we can still make summer. It s not too late, only begun, C G Α Yes, summer always comes anyway.
