

One Brown Mouse
Jethro Tull

D A D

A D A
Smile your little smile --- take some tea with me awhile.

G D A
Brush away that black cloud from your shoulder.

A D A
Twitch your whiskers. Feel that you re really real.

G D A
Another tea-time --- another day older.

A D A
Puff warm breath on your tiny hands. You wish you were a man who every day can turn another page.
G D A

A D A
Behind your glass you sit and look --- at my ever-open book
G D A
One brown mouse sitting in a cage.

E D A
Do you wonder if I really care for you

E D A
Am I just the company you keep

F C D A
Which one of us exercises on the old treadmill

E G D
Who hides his head, pretending to sleep?

A D A
Smile your little smile --- take some tea with me awhile.

G D A
And every day we ll turn another page.

A D A
Behind our glass we ll sit and look ---- at our ever-open book
G D A
One brown mouse sitting in a cage.
