

Part Of The Machine
Jethro Tull

Intro Am G Am C G Em Am(8th fret)

Verse 1 Am G D Am
Everybody s jumping on the circus train
 G D G D Dm
Well some jump high and some jump off again
Dm C Am G
And the razz-ma-tazz is rolling women folk unveiled
 Am F G
All truths to light all cross his name
 Em
Even high where the eagle circles
 D C
Well you can taste tail feathers team
 Am D
But wonders, am I still a free bird
 G Am
Or just a part of the machine

Verse 2 Am G D Am
We hitched the cover wagons from the rule out west
 G D G D Dm
All the picks in the pockets of their sunday best
Dm C Am G
Shaking hands, kissing babies for all of their worth
 Am F G
Oh, they ll promise you gold, Promise everyone an earth
 Em
Still that old bald eagle circles
 D C
It s not the first and that he s seen
 Am D
His reflection in the eyes of innocence
 G Am
His becoming just another part of the machine
D Am
Part of the machine

Chorus F C G
I wish I had an eagle like you
 F G
To look up too
 C D G D G
He could be my wings to fly in a big bird sky
 C Em
Up Above the whole machine

Bridge Am G Am C G Em Am(8th fret)

G Am G Am
Part of the machine, Part of the machine

Chorus

I wish I had an eagle like you

To wake up too

He could be my wings to fly in a big bird sky

He ll let me be part of the machine

Part of the machine, part of the machine, part of the machine

Part of your machine, part of your machine