

This Free Will Jethro Tull

From: Adnaju

Date: Tue, 31 Mar 1998 21:13:32 EST

Album: Roots to Branches

Transcribed by: Nathan Maimone (*)

This is the introduction and chorus
I am trying to get the rest of the song, but am having a hard time. So if anyone wants to transcribe the rest, please do so. If you have any problems with this tab, e-mail to
*

Tempo: Fast Double slashes(--)= short pause

```
e|-----|
b|-----|
g|-----|
d|-7--8-7-5-7--8-5-10-8-7--8-7-5--8-|
a|-5--6-5-3-5--6-7-8--6-5--6-5-3--6-|
E|-----|
```

```
e|-----|
b|-----|
g|-----|
d|-7--8-7-5-7--8-7-10-8-7--8-7-5---|
a|-5--6-5-3-5--6-5-8--6-5--6-5-3---|
E|-----|
```

(Repeat the whole thing twice)

Here s the lyrics.

She peeled from a stretch black snake which slipped up from the hotel door.
Darting looks from piercing eyes -
The stir of memory and then no more.
Well, you know how I have to believe -
She can almost remember my name.

(Chorus)

It s been a long time coming, babe -
Long time loose amongst foreign hills -
Shaking my faith in this free will.

Years ago in a coastal town, mosquitoes buzzed in her hair.

Schooldress torn and bare feet brown -
Then the rains came and she wasn't there.
You're closing your doors on me
when you had almost remembered my name.

It's been a long time coming, babe -
Long time loose amongst foreign hills -
Shaking my faith in this free will.

Sharp points in an ink-black sky -
Faint words collide, then are lost.
I'll follow you beneath this dome -
Win you back at any cost.
I know we were children then,
but you can almost remember my name.

It's been a long time coming, babe -
Long time loss amongst foreign hills -
Well, let's be children, still - Don't shake my faith in this free will.

Don't shake my faith in this free will.

With those lyrics I have just wasted all your printer ink. Sorry, but I had to put them on this.
I think the lyrics starting progression is E--F#m and that's all I can figure out.
So if you know the rest of the chords, please tell me.