You can cry all night til you understand my love
Cause I ll be here in the morning when the sun is bright
And when you see it there shining
You will come to find
That it s always gonna be here til the end of time
My love

I am never gonna leave
I am never gonna leave you stranded
Life is never gonna go
It will never go like you planned it
So you can wear yourself down trying to figure me out
You can love me later if you hate me now
But I am never gonna leave
I am never gonna leave you stranded

So come on take a walk with me, take my hand
You can scream into the darkness and tell me your plans
You can cry all night til you understand my love
Cause I ll be here in the morning when the sun is bright
And when you see it there shining
You will come to find
That it s always gonna be here til the end of time
My love
