My Valentine - Jim Brickman

Intro: D â€" Bm â€" G - A

D                    Bm                  G
  If there were no words, no way to speak
A
I would still hear you
D                    Bm                  G
  If there were no tears, no way to feel inside
     A
I d still feel for you

    F#m          G    A      F#m
And even if the sun refused to shine
        G        A       Bm
Even if romance ran out of rhyme,
        G            A     Bm      A      G
You would still have my heart until the end of time
        D          A        D
You re all i need, my love, my valentine

(Repeat Intro)

D           Bm
  All of my life
           G
I have been waiting for A           D
all you give to me
              Bm             G            A
You ve opened my eyes and shown me how to love unselfishly

    F#m              G        A
I ve dreamed of this a thousand times before
F#m          G      A      Bm
  In my dreams i couldn t love you more

       G            A       Bm          A       G
I will give you my heart until the end of time
        D               A             D
You re all i need, my love, my valentine

D â€" Bm â€" G â€" Bm â€" A (2x)

      F#m           G      A         F#m
And even if the sun refused to shine,
         G            A        Bm
Even if romance ran out of rhyme,
          G              A     Bm       A       G
You would still have my heart until the end of time
         D              A           G        F#m - G
 cause all i need is you, my valentine, ohh
        D              A             D
You re all i need, my love, my valentine
