Everyone Watched The Wedding

::Intro::

G - D/F# - Em - C - D

::Verse #1::

G D/F#
Sisterâ€™s got her baby now and Iâ€™m glad for what she did
Em
But her older oneâ€™s in trouble, man I really love that kid
C D
Maybe he could live here, for us it would be nice
C D
He needs some time to grow up, needs a father in his life

::Verse #2::

G D/F#
Me I guess Iâ€™m lucky, mine have almost grown
Em
Itâ€™s amazing what they turn into from a seed that we have sown
C D
I remember nights just lying there, worrying a while
C D
I look across the room now, and I see them and I smile

::Verse #3::

G D/F#
All we ever want at nightâ€™s our families to be safe
Em
So we hold their hands and pick them up until they take their place
C D
We know that thereâ€™s no promises, no no guarantees
C D
So we pray and pray and pray at night whatever will be will be

::Pre-Chorus::

C Em/B C D C Em/B C D
Oh look at it coming down, making a mess of this whole town

And I think that I know why

::Chorus::

G D/F#

That one day, hope was all that we could see

G D/F# Em

And they looked so beautiful to me

::Verse #5::

My brother heâ€™s a charmer, a snake with a silver tongue

Em

Sometimes he up and disappears and we donâ€™t know where heâ€™s gone

She canâ€™t believe she worries about us all to this day
